										Ave

Committed Time	69%	47%	58%	62%	83%	97%	54%	67%	98%	71%

Currently the average committed time for 2019 is 71%. This is equal to 17 out of 24 hours per day that are dedicated to responding to calls for service and self-initiated activities such as traffic stops, on sight incidents, etc. Best practices for staffing models indicate any amount of committed time over 60% is indicative of understaffing within an organization. Results of an increasing committed time percentage can lead to an increase in response times, availability of officers, employee fatigue and overall service levels to the community.

If current trends continue the number of officer FTEs will need to increase to maintain current service levels and performance.
